

UFSE FREELANCERS' FINANCE FORUM

PROGRAMME: ACTIVITY ZONE

Time	Segment
10.00am – 6.00pm	Fringe Activities Fringe activities such as will-writing service and bite-size financial workshops will run concurrently.

PROGRAMME: TALK ZONE

Time	Segment
10.00am – 12.00pm	Building an “Exit-able” Business Know the difference between business owners and self-employed and the impact on financial planning considerations, budgeting and planning. Speaker: Christopher Tan, Executive Director of MoneyOwl
12.30pm – 1.30pm	Lasting Power of Attorney (LPA) Ever wondered what will happen to your personal, financial or business affairs if you lose the mental capacity to make decisions for yourself? A Lasting Power of Attorney arrangement will allow you to make arrangements for your family members or trusted friends to make decisions on your behalf. CaregiverAsia's very own legal counsel will help prepare and educate you on what an LPA is all about, the benefits of making one and how to go about doing so Speaker: Adel Chong, Legal Counsel, CaregiverAsia Pte Ltd
2.00pm – 3.30pm	Freelancing and small business 101 Know the governmental obligations (e.g. tax, CPF etc.) and rights (i.e. what you can claim etc.) for different business formats which a freelancer could operate concurrently e.g. freelancing, sole proprietorship, one-man company, partnership etc. Speaker: Edgar Wong holds the FCCA, FCA Singapore, ASEAN CPA & is an accredited tax practitioner (income tax & GST). He is with Asiaf1rst, an accounting practice, fulfilling clients' needs in the areas of accounting, tax and corporate services.
3.30pm – 4.30pm	Building your Nest-Egg Learn how to build a retirement fund that requires more certainty in your financial planning and less risk-taking. Speaker: Edy Hartono, Financial Planning Association of Singapore
4.30pm – 5.45pm	Sustainability in Free Lance Work Free Lance Work can be sustainable. In fact, Free Lance Work has to be sustainable, if you are depending on it as a living. In order for that to happen, it takes a lot of planning, understanding your resources and a change of mind set. Speaker: Jeremiah Choy is a trained lawyer who went full time into the arts in 1997. He is a freelance creative director, producer & curator.
6.00pm	End of Programme